Complete payment slip, at the bottom of the page.
Bring the cash payment into Pioneers SA.

4. Primary Ancestor

The primary ancestor is the adult person or couple that was/were the earliest arrival. This is the requirement for your Pioneer membership. Information about your other ancestors that arrived within the qualifying period is not mandatory, but will add to the Pioneers SA ancestor database, and could provide a link to other members with the same ancestor.

5. Pedigree Chart

Pioneers SA require a Pedigree Chart – a copy is available on the Membership page of the Pioneers SA website or provide a pedigree chart from your Family Tree software program (if available) – please highlight the primary ancestor.

The chart must show the continuous direct line of descendants from your pioneer ancestor(s) to you. Please include all the information you have to prove your connection to your Primary Pioneer Ancestor(s).

6. Research

The link below will assist you in your research; you may also come into Pioneers SA for research assistance.
